Alleged Cattle Thieves Bound Over

Will Beatty and Warren Soules, of Brady, were bound over to the district court Saturday morning on the charge of cattle stealing. Bonds were placed at $500 each, which were furnished. The preliminary hearing was held before Judge French Friday and terminated Saturday morning. The state introduced several witnesses, but the defendants made no defense, asking for a dismissal on the grounds of insufficient evidence. The two calves alleged to have been stolen from Bergman were introduced in evidence, one bearing Soules' brand, the other Beatty's brand. Bergman claims that the calves were taken from his pasture by Beatty or Soules, or by both, and claims that he positively identifies the calves as his. A daughter of the complaining witness, and also other members of the family claim that the animals belong to Bergman.

The case attracted much attention by reason of the prominence of the parties charged with the theft.

Three Special Trains Friday

The third section of train No. 19 Friday was a Selig Movie special carrying one hundred and sixty people who will take part in the new picture entitled "The Seven Suffering Sisters," in three reels. The picture will be ready for the public in about two months. The posing for the same will be mostly in California and Utah. The train was composed of nine cars, one of which is fitted up as a movie theatre and another as a dancing room, a full orchestra furnishes music and a small newspaper entitled the "Daily Yelp" is published for their entertainment. On board are Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Selig, Mr. and Mrs. John Selig, Miss Carrie Selig, Miss Ruth Welsh and Miss Frances Hinck, in the leading role. A large electric sign "Selig" is stretched across the railing of the observation car. Willard Howe, of the Washington Times is a member of the party to take notes of the trip, and also Miss Jost who holds an official position in the capitol.

The Shriners' special to Seattle went through here at five-thirty Friday evening, and was met by a large number of local Masonic members. A large camel's head was placed in a conspicuous place on the engine and a siren whistle announced their arrival and departure.

An Elks' special of nine cars from Omaha and Watertown, S. D., passed through Friday evening en route to the annual convention. The train was a nicely appointed one and carried a jolly crowd of B. P. O. E. With them was the famous Watertown band which give concerts on the way and received generous applause for their selections here.

The E. T. Tramp home on west Fourth street was struck by lightning early Saturday morning during the electrical storm, causing a shock to the entire family and scattering the bricks of the chimney where it entered the house. The walls of the den on the third floor were cracked, the doors of the furnace blown off, and the fire place damaged, scattering soot through the house and hallways.

The late decision in favor of the Union Pacific in the St. Joe and Grand Island railroad case, should materially help business on the main line, as it means that traffic from Kansas City, St. Joe and other southern shipping points to the northwest will be routed by Hastings and Gibbon to the main line. This route is 100 miles shorter than via Denver. Attorney Loomis is quoted in Sunday's papers as saying that every contention of the Union Pacific was sustained.
